

Recreation

With an average of 300 days of sunshine annually, there is always something to do. Play golf where Greg Norman learnt - at the Magnetic Island Country Club.

20-hectares of the island is National Park which provides a multitude of exciting bush walks where you will see some of the many exotic bird life. The island has numerous secluded beaches and bays framed by distinctive rocky granite headlands, a genuine natural paradise.

Swimming is available all year at the Picnic Bay swimming enclosure. The island has a large variety of watersports, including guided jet-ski tours, scuba diving, kayaking, canoeing and sailing or why not take a house boat on the beach. Famous for it's fishing, North Queensland is an angler's paradise. You can fish off the beach, jetty or rent your own boat or go on one of the many trips out to the Great Barrier Reef.
